INVITATION

Urban Development
An evening of discussions on residents' involvement

The administration of the Côte-des-Neiges—Notre-Dame-de-Grâce borough invites you to an evening of information and discussions on citizen participation in urban planning.

During the evening, different borough representatives will explain the obligations and procedures for public consultations, and present new methods that could be introduced. In addition, the approval process for a typical specific proposal case, and the operation of the Urban Planning Advisory Committee (CCU), will be explained.

After the presentation, residents who attend the meeting will have a chance to ask questions and make suggestions concerning the consultation process.
