

PUBLIC NOTICE

Notice is given that a special urban agglomeration council meeting will be held as follows:

Date Friday, January 21, 2022, at 1 p.m.

Place Lucien-Saulnier building, council chamber
155, rue Notre-Dame Est
(Champ-de-Mars metro station)

Due to the state of emergency currently in effect and the special measures taken to limit the spread of the coronavirus, all urban agglomeration council meetings will be held behind closed doors until further notice. Therefore, council members will attend the meetings by teleconference.

As a result, the public will not be admitted to city hall during the next urban agglomeration council meeting. However, the meeting may be viewed via webcast (a live stream or recording).

The special meeting of January 21, 2022, will mainly deal with the adoption of the city's ten-year capital works program for 2022-2031 (urban agglomeration component) and the city's 2022 budget (urban agglomeration component), the 2022-2031 capital works program and 2022 budget of the Société de transport de Montréal, as well as the approval of the 2022 budgets of certain paramunicipal agencies.

Please note that the question period and deliberations of this special meeting will deal exclusively with these subjects, in accordance with section 474.2 of the Cities and Towns Act.

Residents can also ask elected officials questions by sending them in writing by 10 a.m., on Friday, January 21, 2022, according to the format in the special procedure posted on the January 21, 2022 special urban agglomeration council meeting page on the city's website at montreal.ca.

The special procedure will replace the regular public oral question period.

For further details on the special measures taken in relation to the COVID-19 pandemic and to watch the next urban agglomeration council meeting, please visit the city's website at montreal.ca.
