PROGRESS REPORT OF THE 2020-2030 CLIMATE PLAN

PUBLIC REVIEW

The standing committee on water, the environment, sustainable development and large parks is holding a public meeting to present the progress report of the 2020-2030 Climate plan.

PUBLIC MEETING

The standing committee is inviting interested citizens to attend the meeting as follows:

DATE AND TIME: THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2025, AT 9:30 A.M.

Armory hall, Montréal city hall
275, rue Notre-Dame Est, Montréal (Québec) H2Y 1C6, room RC-100

The public meeting is webcast live on the standing committee Web page.

DOCUMENTS

Documents pertaining to the public meeting will be available on January 30, 2025, on the same Web page.

QUESTION AND COMMENT PERIOD

The presentation of the mid-term review by the city's ecological transition and resilience bureau (Bureau de la transition écologique et de la résilience) will be followed by a public question and comment period. A period will also be reserved for commissioners' input.

Any person interested in submitting a question or comment must do so before the presentation ends. An online form will be available on the dedicated Web page. For those wishing to voice their question or comment in person, prior registration using the same form will be required before the meeting begins either online or on site.

ACCESSIBILITY

The Armoury chamber is accessible to people with reduced mobility. A Québec Sign Language (QSL) or American Sign Language (ASL) interpretation service may be provided upon request, so long as the request is made five days prior, and subject to interpreter availability.

Public meetings are webcast and recorded.

INFORMATION

For additional information, please see the Web page or contact the standing committee secretariate (secrétariat des commissions permanentes). Copies of the documents are also available at the city clerk's office (Service du greffe).
