PUBLIC MEETING

2024 ANNUAL REPORT OF THE MONTRÉAL POLICE DEPARTMENT (SPVM)

PUBLIC REVIEW

The standing committee on public security (Commission de la sécurité publique) is inviting Montrealers to participate in a public review during which the city's police department (SPVM) will present its annual report for the year 2024.

PUBLIC MEETING

The standing committee is inviting citizens to attend the following meeting:

DATE AND TIME: WEDNESDAY, JUNE 11, 2025 AT 1 P.M.

Armoury chamber, Montréal city hall
275, rue Notre-Dame Est, Montréal (Québec) H2Y 1C6, room RC-100

The public meeting is webcast live on the standing committee Web page

DOCUMENTS

Documents pertaining to the public meeting will be available on the same Web page.

PUBLIC QUESTION AND COMMENT PERIOD

The presentation will be followed by a public question and comment period. Any person interested in submitting a question or comment must do so before the presentation ends. An online form will be available on the Web page.

For those wishing to voice their question or comment in person, they may register using the same form or onsite, 30 minutes before the meeting begins.

ACCESSIBILITY

The Armoury chamber is accessible to people with reduced mobility. A Québec Sign Language (QSL) may be provided upon request, so long as the request is made five days prior, and subject to interpreter availability.

Public meetings are webcast and recorded.

INFORMATION

For additional information, please see the dedicated Web page or contact the standing committee secretariat (secrétariat des commissions permanentes). Copies of the documents are also available at the city clerk's office (Service du greffe).
