Public survey

Public survey regarding the status of implementation of the recommendations made in the report pertaining to participation in Montréal's municipal elections, titled "Participation aux élections municipales à Montréal"

In 2023, the council chair standing committee (Commission de la présidence du conseil) consulted Montrealers regarding their participation in municipal elections. Following the 2025 municipal elections, the standing committee would like to review the progress made in this regard. Montrealers are invited to participate in a public meeting during which Élections Montréal will be presenting the status of implementation of the recommendations made in the 2023 report pertaining to participation in the city's municipal elections.

Information

Date and time: Monday, November 9, starting at 1 p.m. You may access the premises as of 12:30 p.m.

Place: Armory Hall, Montréal city hall, 275 rue Notre-Dame Est, Montréal

Live webcast: The public meeting will be webcast live on the standing committee's dedicated Web page.

Public meeting

The public meeting will begin with the presentation by Élections Montréal. Following a short break, there will be a public question and comment period. The meeting will end in questions and comments by standing committee members.

Participating in the question and comment period

Anyone wishing to take part in the discussion by asking their question or stating their comment may do so by registering before the end of the break following the initial presentation.

Register to ask a question or make a comment at the meeting: starting at 12:30 p.m., at the registration table set up in front of the Armory Hall.

To ask a question or make a comment remotely: fill out the form on the standing committee's dedicated Web page.

For any question regarding participation in a public meeting, contact the standing committee secretariate, at 514 872-3000 or by email at commissions@montreal.ca.
