

PUBLIC NOTICE

PUBLIC MEETINGS

Commission de la présidence du conseil

Advisory committees: Representation of the community

The standing committee on council chairmanship is holding a public review of the annual reports of 3 advisory committees. Those committees, which are made up of residents, are responsible for advising the executive committee and the city council, and for giving their opinion on any question that may have an impact on the living conditions of the people they represent. They have given an advisory opinion and made recommendations on many important matters over the years. The public meetings offer an insight into the workings of each committee and give you the opportunity to express your views.
