

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

PLANNING ADVISORY COMMITTEE

MANDATE OF THE PLANNING ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The Planning Advisory Committee is an advisory committee that makes recommendations to the borough council on a variety of planning matters, including applications for minor exemptions, site plan development, architectural integration and implementation plans, all draft by-laws intended to amend the urban by-law, and zoning, minor exemption and subdivision by-laws or any other urban, zoning and subdivision matters.

In addition, the Planning Advisory Committee studies and decides on applications for demolition permits.

SELECTION CRITERIA

In general, every applicant must:

- be a resident of our borough;
- have a good knowledge of French;
- be available to attend assemblies and meetings to study specific matters.

Anyone wishing to become a member of the PLANNING ADVISORY COMMITTEE must:

- be familiar with the physical, geographical and human environment of our borough;
- be involved in the community;
- possess knowledge in urban, development, architectural or cultural heritage or;
- have actively participated in one or more of the economic, cultural, scientific, community or educational dimensions of Montréal life.
