

Public meeting of the Conseil du patrimoine de Montréal
Designation of Maison Bleau as a historic monument
Rivière-des-Prairies–Pointe-aux-Trembles borough

A notice of motion on the draft By-law concerning the designation of Maison Bleau, bearing number 13200, boulevard Gouin Est, as a historic monument, was tabled at the city council meeting of August 25, 2008.

Under the Cultural Property Act (R.S.Q., chapter B-4), municipalities may designate historic monuments to ensure the preservation of their heritage.

The Conseil du patrimoine de Montréal is holding a public meeting to hear the representations of all persons and organizations who would like to express their views.
