

Public meeting of the Conseil du patrimoine de Montréal Designation of the service station bearing number 201, rue Berlioz, as a historic monument - Verdun borough

A notice of motion on the draft By-law concerning the designation of the service station bearing number 201, rue Berlioz, as a historic monument, was tabled at the city council meeting of February 23, 2009.

Under the Cultural Property Act (R.S.Q., chapter B-4), municipalities may designate historic monuments to ensure the preservation of their heritage.

The Conseil du patrimoine de Montréal is holding a public meeting to hear the representations of all persons and organizations who would like to express their views.

Tuesday, March 31, 2009, at 7 p.m.
Centre communautaire Elgar, Salle Des Chênes
260, rue Elgar
L'Île-des-Sœurs
Verdun borough

For planning purposes, all persons and organizations concerned should register beforehand with the Conseil du patrimoine de Montréal.

The background material is available at:

- Direction du greffe de la Ville de Montréal: 275, rue Notre-Dame Est, R-134
- Verdun borough office: 4555, rue de Verdun, bureau 102
- Site of the Conseil du patrimoine de Montréal: ville.montreal.qc.ca/cpm

Information: Conseil du patrimoine de Montréal 514-872-4055

Montréal, March 12, 2009

Me Yves Saindon
City Clerk