PUBLIC MEETING

Commission permanente du conseil municipal sur le développement culturel et la qualité du milieu de vie

Public consultations on the framework for action on public art

The standing committee on cultural development and quality of living environment is holding public consultations on the new framework for action on public art. The city's collection contains over 300 works of art, in addition to public artworks and numerous works through civic, private and community initiatives. The new framework aims to maintain and preserve existing collections, acquire and develop works of art, and promote public art.
