Commission de la sécurité publique

From present to future: Annual review of the SPVM

The public security committee extends the invitation to citizens to participate in the public study of the 2010 annual review of the Service de police de la Ville de Montréal (SPVM). The innovative review presents the array of actions taken daily by the SPVM, revealing in chronological order its main accomplishments in terms of citizen relations, prevention, the fight against crime, road safety and the improvement of the quality of life.
